

Recruitment Selection Criteria

Environmental Assessment Officer

Position Title	Environmental Assessment Officer
Section	Environmental Services
Division	Development and Environment
Grade	Natural Resources Manager

Essential requirements

1. Bachelor degree in Environmental Science or equivalent qualification in a related field and/or significant experience deemed equivalent
2. Comprehensive knowledge and appreciation of relevant planning and environmental legislation, regulations and current requirements, principles and practices within NSW
3. Extensive experience with the Environmental Planning and Assessment legislative framework and the assessment and review of planned activities, environmental factors and impacts at Local Government level
4. Proven experience in undertaking Part 5 determinations and Review of Environmental Factors
5. Ability to manage, coordinate and facilitate the provision of expert environmental advice to other stakeholders, governmental agencies and the community
6. Demonstrated experience and ability to outsource and manage contracted work in a timely and effective manner
7. Comprehensive computer literacy skills
8. Strong interpersonal, negotiation, customer service, reporting and communication (both written and verbal) skills
9. Current "C" class drivers licence

Desirable requirements

1. Cert IV training and assessment or other relevant training qualification or experience
2. Ability to apply academic knowledge and concepts to practical situations
3. Competency in use of Geographic Information Systems (GIS)

Our Values

Communication | Accountability | Professionalism | Integrity | Teamwork

In your role at Council, you are expected to demonstrate our Values at all times. Your position description details the behaviours expected of you in your role.