

Events and Sister Cities

About the opportunity

This is an exciting, fast-paced role within our Events and Sister Cities team involved in the development, marketing, coordination and delivery of a number of minor and major community events and festivals for Council.

Our program is broad and seeks to provide entertainment and social engagement through a range of events for a diverse population of residents.

This role requires a motivated, enthusiastic and committed team member to provide a high standard of work and it is anticipated that you will possess strong organisational skills.
